Everyone Amanda Dick

Everyone eggs a fight on. Everyone laughs along with gay jokes.

Everyone doesn't even flinch at the adjective retarded.

Everyone blames the Asian for throwing off the grading curve. Everyone ridicules the black student who may take his spot at a college. Everyone is tense on an airplane with an Arab near the cockpit. Everyone whispers about everyone's hideous outfits.

It's easy to be everyone. Everyone is wherever you go. Everyone is friendly. Everyone laughs at your racist jokes.
Everyone smiles knowingly at your biased complaints. Everyone sympathizes with your tales of dealing with "weird" people.

But sometimes you meet someone else. Someone respects everyone he meets. Someone treats people the way he would like to be treated. Someone will give everyone a chance. Someone speaks up when everyone isn't right.

Do you know everyone who simply followed orders as they tortured Jews or Elie Wiesel who fought to survive a daily nightmare?

Do you care about everyone who gave sympathetic looks to the blacks riding in the back of the bus or Rosa Parks who wouldn't take it anymore?

Do you remember everyone who beat their slaves or Harriet Tubman who led people to freedom?

Do you recall everyone who passively accepted a lower status or Susan B. Anthony who fought for women's voting rights?

> Be someone. No one remembers everyone.

FASHION FOR CHARITY: President Giustina Renzoni, VP Brittany Stoll, Secretary Alicia Grimaldo, Treasurer Kim Wheeler. Advisor is Ms. Alfred. Fashion for Charity was established at SHS as a way for students to explore fashion design, merchandising and other aspects of the industry. Congratulations Reinhold!

You have finally completed your basic education. We know it will come very useful in whatever path you choose to follow. You have so many qualities that will help you be successful in anything you decide to pursue. Being smart is not the only thing going for you, but your loyalty, truthfulness and courage are some of your other traits that we highly appreciate in

you. You make us very proud parents, and we have full confidence that you will accomplish great things. Best wishes for you on your ongoing growth.

We love you very, very much.

Mom and Dad

Little Brother, I want you to know how much I love you, and how proud I am of all your accomplishments thus far. I just know you will continue to shine throughout the years to come.

Love - Your Big Sister

Congratulations to the Brothers from different Mothers. With love from your Mothers and all the others.

Brett Cournoyer and Brett Marcimo

Its bitter sweet, yet filled with joy.

We watched you grow from child to man. We saw you crawl and then to stand

To run, to play and laugh and more. But soon, you will walk out the door.

Wouldn't we, just once wish to see, A time when you were young and so were we.

And so, our hope for you dear son, is but a simple one. That you will live a life of joy, and a loving one.

Mom and Dad

17 years ago you came bounding into our lives You captured us then, you still have us captive! You demanded our attention right from the start And we knew then, you'd be forever instilled In our hearts.

Throughout the years you've taught us a lot, The oldest of four you were our first start. You've made us laugh, you've made us cry, You've made us proud -see look at you now.

Each day we sit and wonder, where will you be going? What is your journey to be? Oh God, please be safe! We anticipate your thoughts - we know you so well. We love you so much it's hard to let go.

As you move forward into college and life, continue with Confidence that serves you so well. Cherish your friendships, They happen so quickly. Continue to dream and reach for the sky, We know you will get there - you have shown us why!

Remember TARA always trust in your family we will always be here for you< we love you so dearly we know you so well!

Congratulations on your high school graduation,

Good luck and best wishes for college success!

Have fun, be safe and always call home!

Joseph, I can't believe you're already a senior and graduating, and leaving me most importantly. So much has happened in the past 3 years it's impossible to remember all the amazing things, and I know there are some we'd like to forget too, but one thing I will always remember, and I hope you do too, is that I love you and you are my best friend. I wish you never had to leave and we could sit and play Family Feud and eat ice cream, or shoot arrows like Robin Hood, forever because they're my favorite times with you, but I know that can't happen and I'll miss all of it. I know you will do amazing in whatever you choose because you'reso intelligent and lively is not needed.

Congratulations Alyssa!!

When you were born we held you in our arms and just kept smiling at you. You always smiled back, your big eyes wide open, full of love. You were such a beautiful, good, sweet baby!

Now, as we watch you grow up and become your own person, we look at you, your laughter, your happiness, your simplicity, your beauty, and we know that you will be able to enjoy a life of sensitivity, goodness, accomplishment and love in a world that hopefully is at peace. We want to tell you that we are so proud of you and we dearly love you! (Susan P. Schutz)

Love, Mom & Dad

Dear Katie,

Watching you grow and succeed has been both challenging and rewarding.

Congratulations on completing another one of life's small accomplishments.

Before you start the next chapter in your life, we have a few rules for you--- (Now what fun would it be if we didn't give you any rules?).

- 1. Remember to examine each line carefully, making sure it is a PERFECT fit for YOUR book of life.
- 2. Always be true to yourself and to others.
- 3. Don't be afraid to dream.
- 4. Wish upon the stars.
- 5. Always remember the beauty of each day that nature gives us.

ast but certainly not least:

6. Believe in yourself at all times. You are capable of doing and achieving anything you put your mind to.

With all our love.

Face it - for the past thirteen years we've lived life together. If you think that the next thirteen years are going to be any different, you are sorely mistaken. (Well, naybe it's time to trade our beanie babies for frat parties...) We are going to be friends til the end. You know why? Because I say so. (And because life would be much too difficult without each other).

Ryan,

I've known you my whole life, and we've had so many good times together with our "bonding" moments; watching Too Fast Too Furious and the Lion King. Those memories will never go away. I'm going to miss you when you go off to college, but then again I won't have to fight over whose turn it is to use the computer. Don't worry, I'll still be thinking of you, because you are always going to be my older brother.

Love Always, Allison

Ryan,
We are so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. These 18 years have flown by and have been absolutely wonderful!
We could not ask for any more than you have given us.
You'll always be our "All-Star".
We wish you nothing but success and happiness. The journey has just begun.

John, Congratulations. I am so proud of youl While we have been together you've taught me so many lessons that I will carry with me forever, You are my best friend and hero. Thank you for being there through everything, You always knew the right thing to say. That amazing smile of yours always brightened up my day and your dumb jokes always made me crack a smile of my own no matter how hard I tried to keep it in. It's those small things that I will definitely miss the most. You mean the world to me and no one can ever replace what we have together. You have so much to offer and as long as you follow your heart you will succeed in anything you choose to do. High school is over and now the future awaits you. Have fun, work hard, and enjoy college.

Love always and forever, Brianna

We wish you the best of luck with all of your future endeavors.

I don't want to say anything corny that would embarrass you now that you have grown up. It has just gone by so fast. From the early days of teaching you how to stand up on your skis to now, having you waiting for me to catch up. From the days of teaching you how to use the clutch and ride the motorcycle to you finding our way out of the New Hampshire woods after my fall and concussion. I have greatly enjoyed doing a lot of things together with you over these years. I hope that we can continue doing things together but you need to work on your golf game. I am very proud of your determination and drive and what you have accomplished on the football field. I am also proud of the way you have matured with respects to your education and your realization that working hard and achieving good results is a priority for you. But mostly I am proud of what a great young man you have turned into. You personality, your generosity and consideration for others is outstanding and these are traits that will be your most important assets in the future. College is next on the horizon and I know that you will be committed to getting the most out it. - after that you're on your own. Dad en though you're my little brother, you have always en the one I would turn to, knowing you would have y back. You have grown from an annoying little funny by into a handsome, courteous, and well rounded man. much as it use to bother me that one of my friends ould develop a crush on you, I can honestly say that ly girl would be very lucky to have you in their life. ep doing what you've been doing Matt, you have ready impressed me more than you know. Love always, Dana

Congratulations

GOOD FOR YOU!!!

WAY TO GO!!!!

Thuddy,

I am so proud of you. You have grown up to be such a nice handsome young man. I remember your first day of school and here you are a senior. How times goes by. Remember you are in control of your life. Your choices, good and bad, will shape your future so take the time to think things through. But always remember that I will be there for you no matter what!!

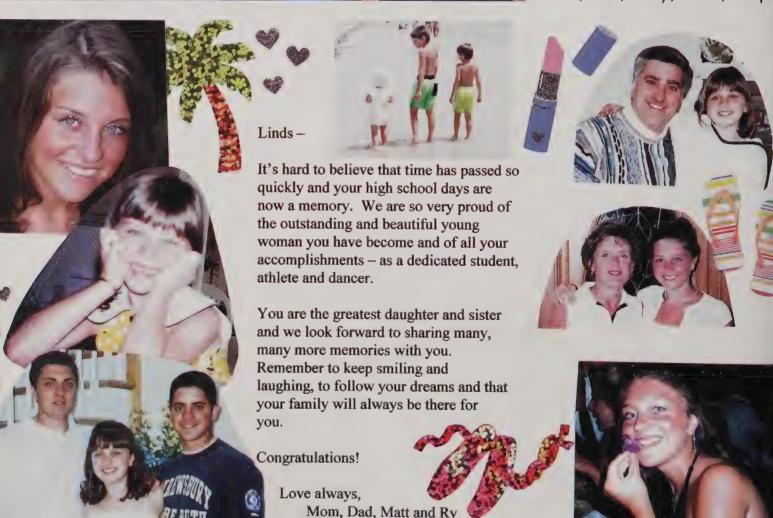

Love Mom

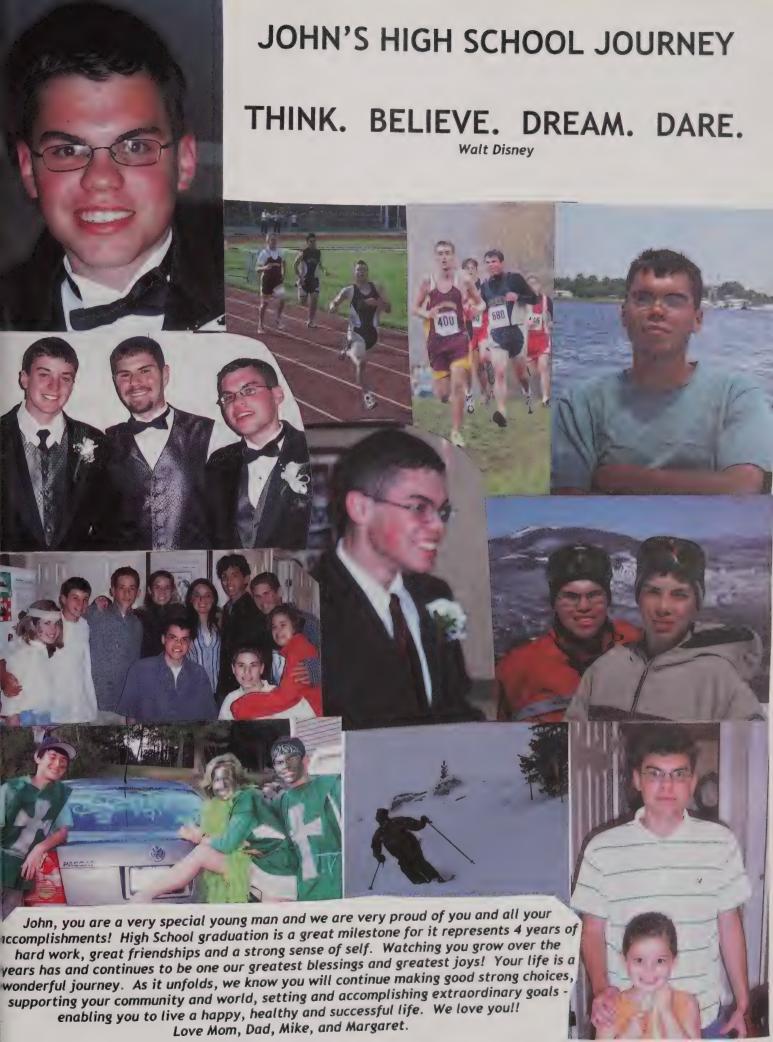

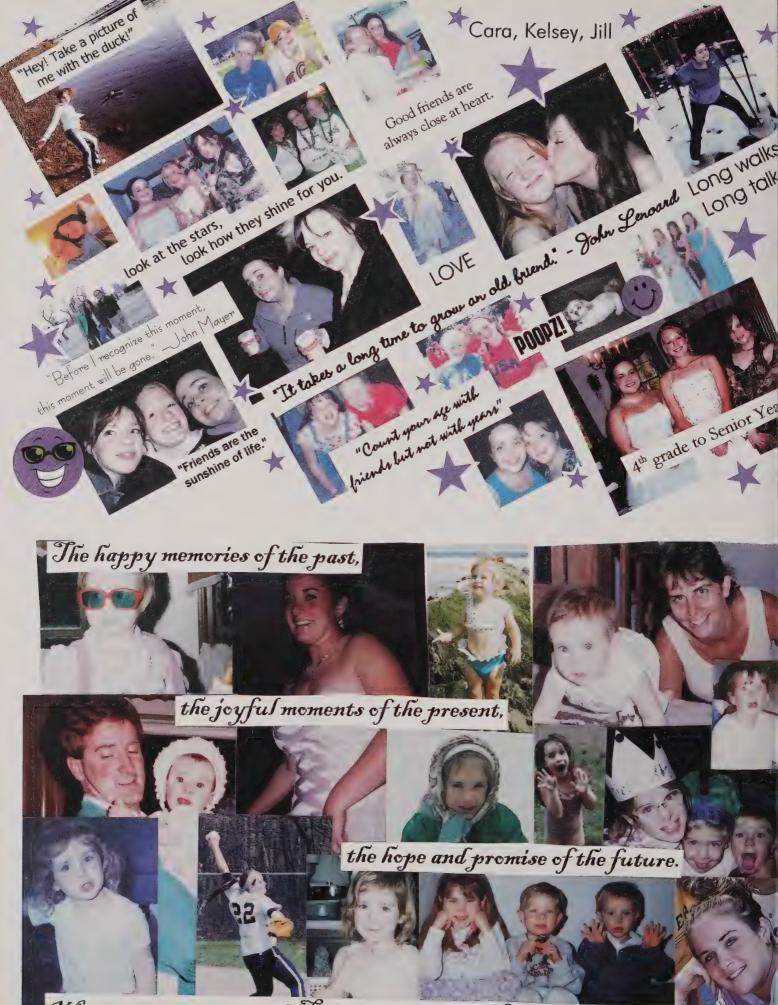

MATT

My chubby little brother's all grown up into one sexy football player. You've come a long way and I am glad to know you're not going to take crap from anyone, you don't have to now. You will, however, have to work on those grammatical issues you have LOL, but you know I'll always be there to help you out. You made it - now go out and celebrate!

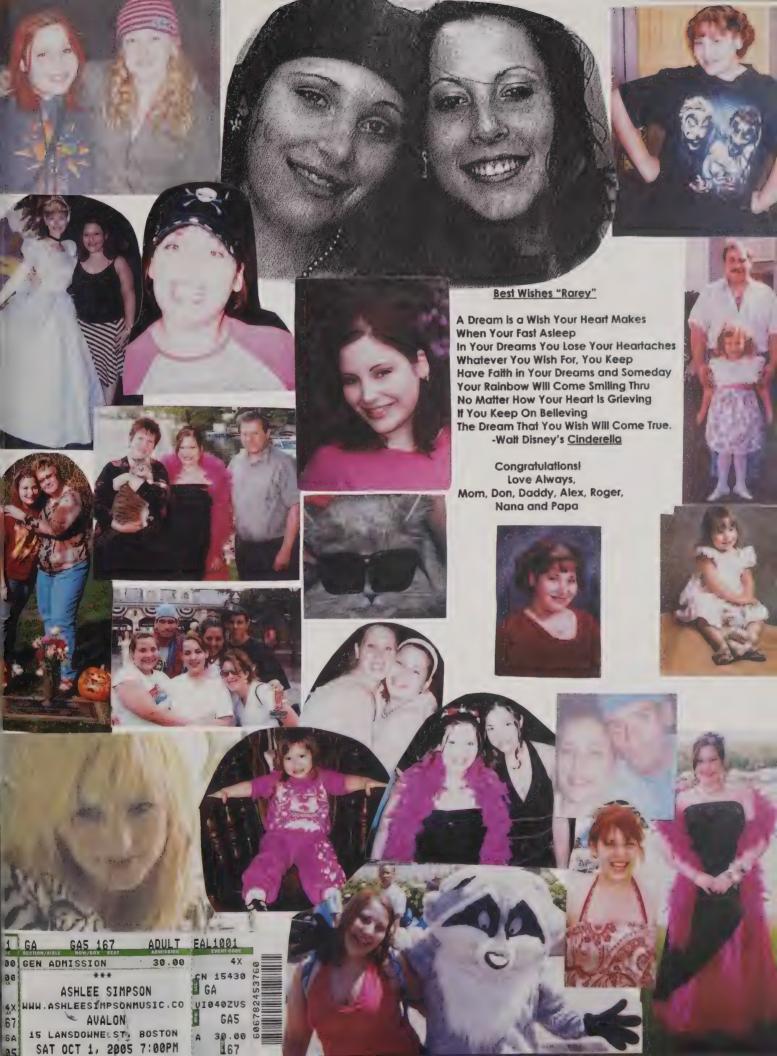

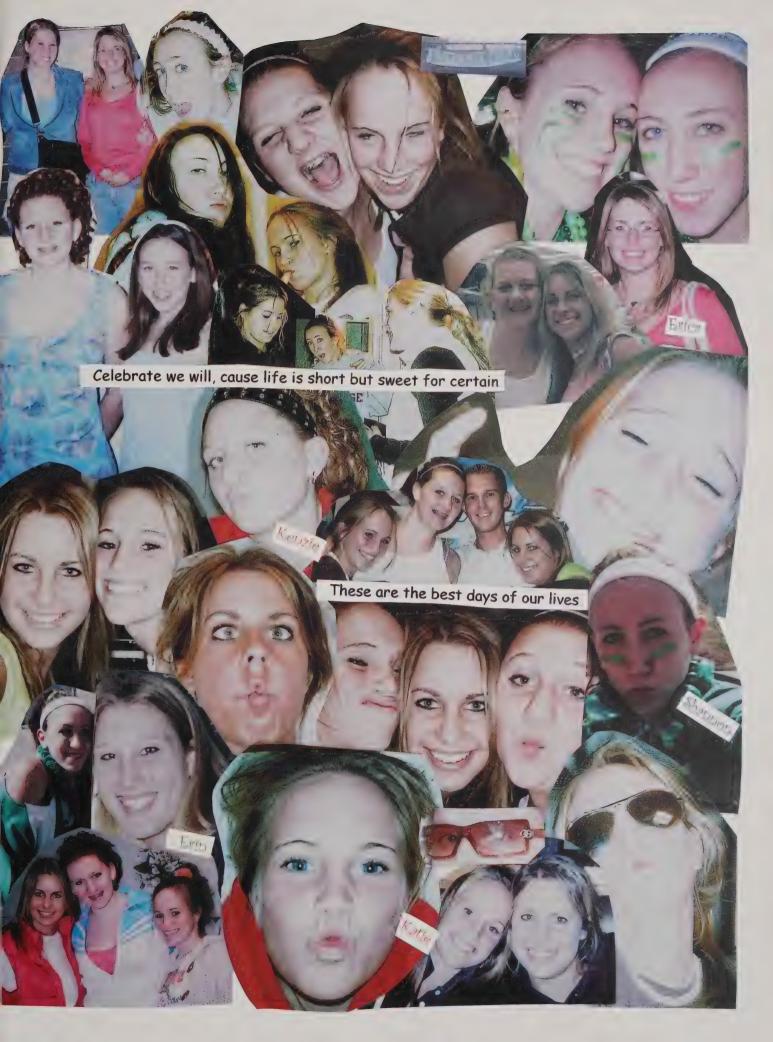

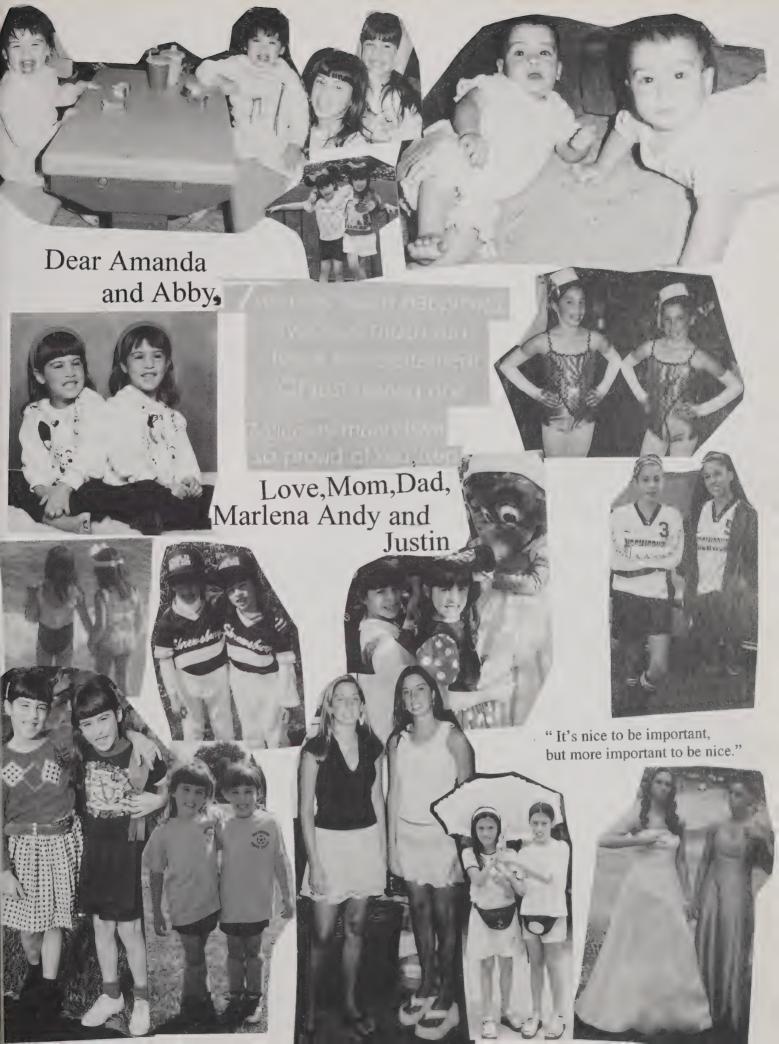

We are so proud of you Michaella - Love, Mom, Dad, James and Danie

Over the years you have brought us so much pleasure with your sense of humor and the way you look at life.
You are a unique an individual as the names you have come to be known to us by—"Sparky", "Charlie", "Magoo", "Tuna" (just to name a few).
We hope you always maintain your sense of self And, as Dr. Seuss said, "Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So... get on your way."
Love,

Ps May you always have the ball in your hand, in the bottom of the 9th!

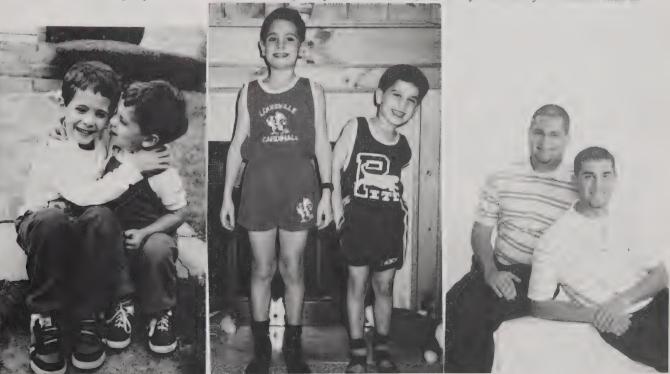

Jeff-

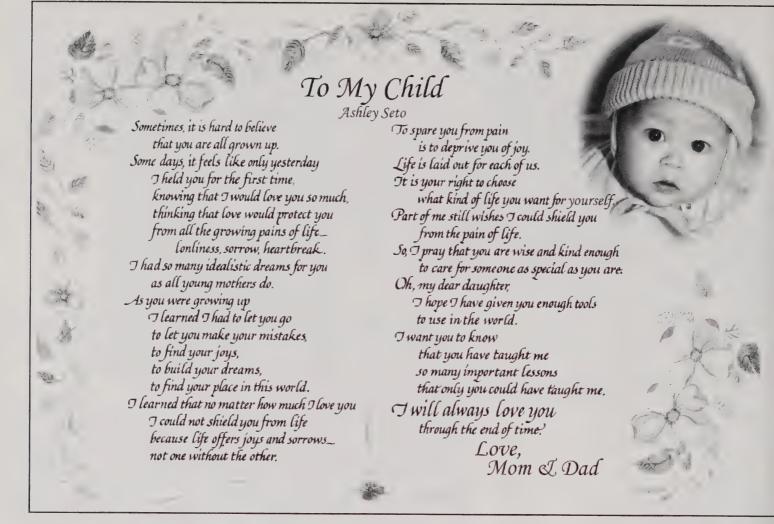

Mom & Dad

No brother could ever wish for such an unbelievable and unique brother as you. Over the past 18 years, we've grown together, struggled together and have definitely laughed with and at one another a few times. Form long car rides in Florida to the tune of a revised Mambo #5 to wanting to strangle each other for stealing the other's clothes; from playing catch in our backyard to digging holes in Grandma's backyard, we've always been there for one another. Now as you prepare to close one door in your life, we both know that many more will open for you.

Even though you tower over me in height, just remember that I'll always be your BIG brother, and always there for you. Best of luck in college!

Love, Alan (SHS '03)

Wherever you end up in the years to come, you will inspire everyone around you with intelligence and beauty. Your passion and determination will carry you anywhere. So go ahead Iz, and spread your wings.

Stay you...

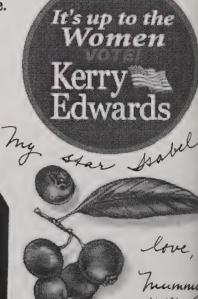

Isabel, at this point a 'congratulations' and a moment to look back to an already rather remarkable part of your life are rather well-deserved. Now, on towards the next phases: I have no doubt it will be thrill for you to experience and awesome for us all to watch: you truly are a very special person indeed and will reach high. I am very proud of you and it is delight, pleasure, and honor to have you as my daughter! love, Daddy

Steve,

Through the past 16 years, you have taught us the true meaning of the words "Pride and Joy." You are so special! From Alaska to Florida, and many places in between, we have seen and done so much together. Keep the adventure going - follow your heart and listen to your head, but above all, be true to yourself.

We will miss all the singing and incredible music...but we'll always be here for you.

We love you! Mom and Dad

Ben,

Over the past two years we've gone through so much together. We've had so many good times. You're not just my boyfriend, you're my best friend. I don't know what I'd do without you. Whatever you decide to do in life I'm sure it'll be great. You're an amazing person and you have the best sense of humor. You always know how to put a smile on my face.

My Dear Michelle, ("Sheli")

My special little girl is all grown up and is graduating from high-school. It feels like just yesterday we were dropping you off at Beal for your first day of school. I look at you now and see what a beautiful young lady you have become. You bring our family so much joy. Your funny sense of humor, your caring, your love, and your support, I am so proud of the person you've become and the respect you have for yourself. You stand by your own values, view life from your own perspective, and invigorate the people around you. I believe in you, in your spirit, in your goodness, in the way that you face each day with a commitment to your life and the things that really matter. It shows how grown up you have become and how you have applied yourself through some very difficult times. It shows that you do believe in yourself and have the faith that somehow things happen in life for a reason and we will sustain them. I can only pray for the direction your future has for you to be successful, healthy, and of course, your happiness. As you go on in life please know you have my support and love in whatever you choose. I am so proud to be your mom. Treasure these memories and always follow your instincts. Sing, sing! You have a beautiful voice. I Love you always to the moon and back! Remember these are the best days of your life so go and enjoy them.

To my little darling of a daughter, ("peeps!")

Time surely passes by quickly. It seems like yesterday you were singing tomorrow in your flamboyant hat, white gloves, and made-up face. Now you are a mature young lady sometimes showing me a better way to do things. It's been a joy having you in my life and I look forward to seeing you everyday and not knowing what circumstances to expect next. We've experienced many milestones along the way, walking, talking, swimming, singing, school, friends, boys, tough decisions, flying, and driving! I can go on and on, there was so much activity that you inspired. Thank God for Mom because I would not be able to keep up with you. Please continue being yourself because it shouldn't be any other way! Good luck on your high-school graduation. I am proud of you.

Your Dad, Dad

Dear Michelle,

I have wonderful memories of our times together - playing school, trips to McDonalds, Daisy May, and many more. I only wish the best for you. May you strive for your goals as you go on to make many choices on your own. Remember always God, your family, and your friends as you continue to mature and look to your future. I will love you always.

Gram!

Dear Cara,

We are so proud of the beautiful, loving person you are. You are and always will be the light of our lives. Always believe in yourself and remember how much we believe in you. Your talents will take you far. We love you, angel, forever.

Love, Dad, Mom, Meagan & Jimmy

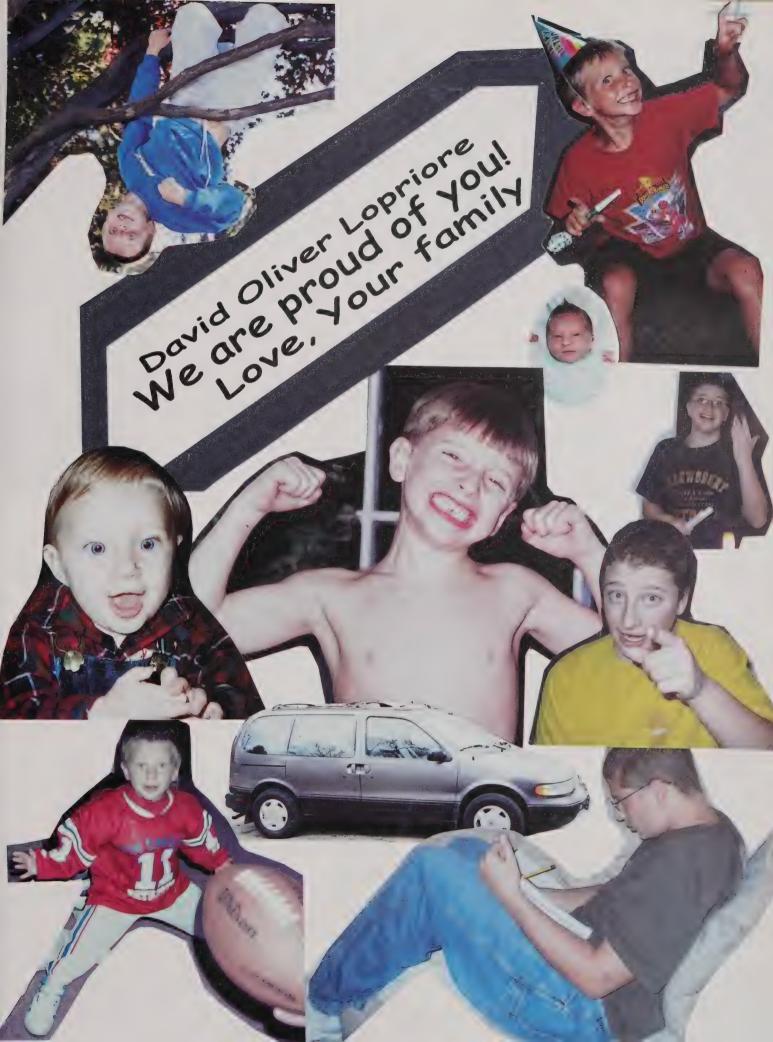

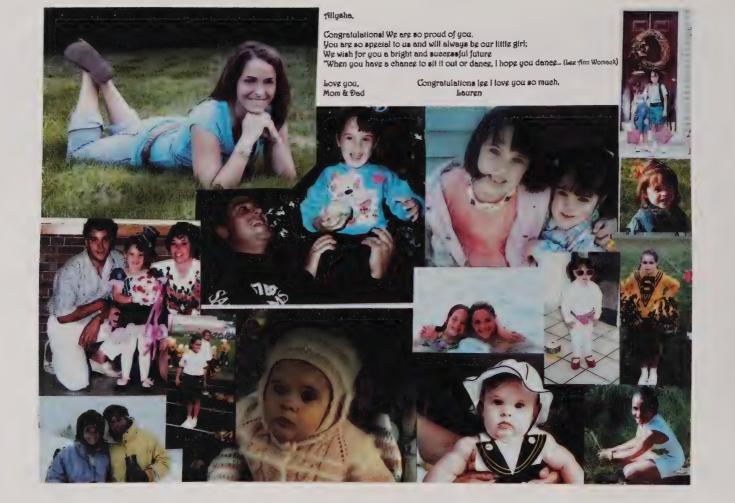

John,

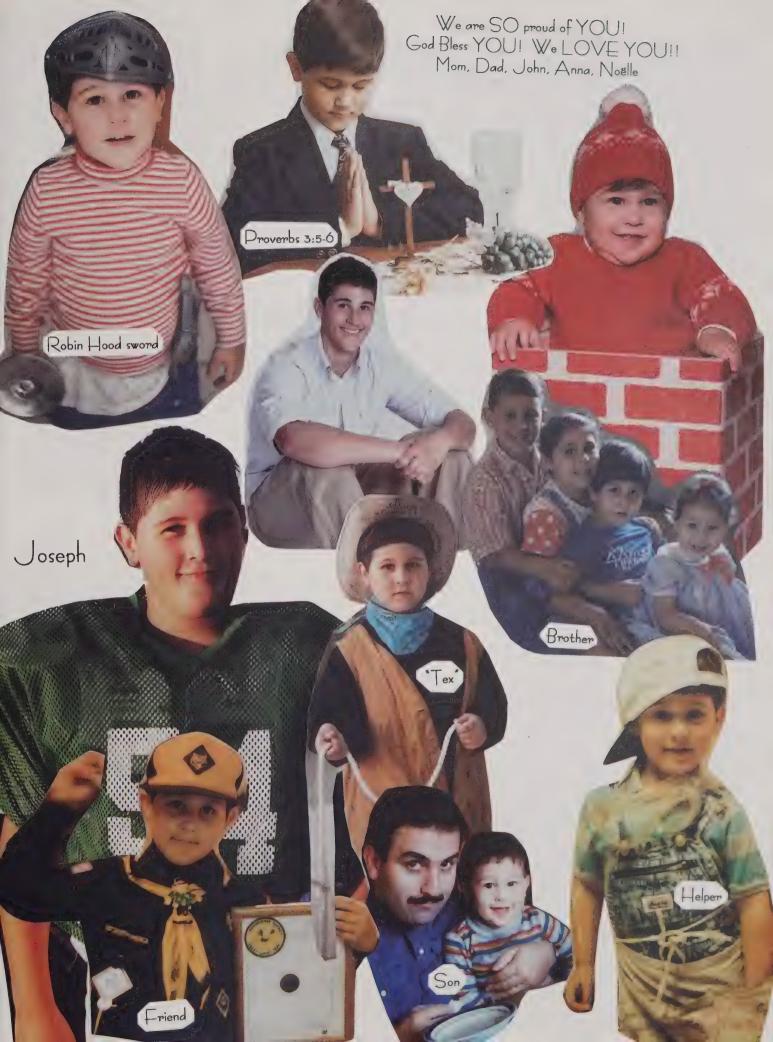

As you embark on your journey to college, we want you to know how proud we are of you. You are everything a parent would want their child to be kind, intelligent, strong, honest, and most of all loving. We will miss you terribly along with your sense of humor! We know that the future will hold success and happiness for you. Continue on your path, try to make the right choices, enjoy every new experience and most of all stay safe.

Congratulations!
With All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, and Brian

HURRICANES HITHOME

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.
